31. RACHEL ELIZABETH is a self-taught wildlife and pet portrait artist based in the north west. Rachel specialises in coloured pencil artwork and prints. Visit www.rachelizabethartist.etsy.com to view her work, or contact 07581 232143 for bespoke commissions and to find out more.

22. American artist, ETHAN LIMA is a native of Massachusetts whose work is a reflection of his experiences with nature. The subjects in his work hold a timeless quality and a calming simplicity; in duality, his work also captures a glimpse into complex relationships that slowly reveal themselves. Dermot Desmond amongst others has collected Ethan's award-winning paintings. Visit ethalima.com or contact him at ethanlima@comcast.net for further enquiries.

23. Canadian artist AMÉLIE SUTTER loves to work with oils, acrylics and watercolours. She works in various styles – from abstract works to landscapes inspired by her travels, like her painting "Nuits Parisiennes" pictured. Visit www.ameliesutter.com to view more of her work, or contact amelie_sutter@hotmail.com

19. OLIVER JONES is an award-winning artist working in pastel, he presented his first North Atlantic solo show with GUSFORD in Los Angeles and soon after a major UK solo show at The New Art Gallery Walsall. Oliver's work features in both public and private collections in the UK, Istanbul, Los Angeles and Frankfurt. Visit www.olivercjones.com or contact info@olivercjones.com to find out more.

20. KATRINA ROSE's work can be identified by her use of vibrant colours and interplay of light, engaging the audience and transporting the viewer to the scene. Her recent work leans towards impressionism, created mainly with a palette knife. Visit www.katrinarose.co.uk or contact katrinamerose@gmail.com to find out more.

29. When DAVE MALONE first enters the studio, he doesn't engage in the work right away; rather he studies, contemplates, reviews, and visualises the actions he might make. When he does engage, he evolves single pieces, as well as the holistic body of work. See examples of his work at www.davemalone.com or on Instagram @davemaloneart

30. Still life and culinary paintings by Dutch artist TANJA MODERSCHEIM (London, www.dutchchoils.com). Classical style, 17th century technique. Suitable for kitchens, dining rooms, drawing rooms and other living spaces, the detailed oil paintings express space, stillness and silence. Exhibitions include BBC and Mall Galleries. Commissions undertaken. Email artist@dutchchoils.com or call 07909 646317 for information.

31. "A poetic interpretation of landscape". Inspired by light, Nature and classical music. SUSIE LEE's large oil paintings immerse the viewer in their powerful composition, subtle tones and bright colour. Collected internationally, exhibited widely. Susie's canvases create a room with a view. Shown here is 'Lunan Bay I', 195cm x 155cm. Visit www.susielee.co.uk or contact susiebigland@btinternet.com to find out more.

32. ANTONIA DUNDAS is a floral artist specialising in all garden flowers, wild flowers and hedgerow berries, particularly Clematis and Roses. She exhibits locally in Sussex and has successfully exhibited at the Botanical Artists in London. She also paints wild animals and birds and has published a book on her local wildlife.
